Honesty and Openness

The Prevention of Corruption Acts applies to all contracts that any government department or public organisation enters into. The Acts make it a criminal offence to give or offer bribes or rewards to an employee of a government department or public organisation with the intention of influencing them in their duties. These offences could lead to loss of contracts, loss of future opportunities and prosecution under the Acts. It is also a criminal offence to knowingly supply false or fraudulent information in your application.

Terms and Conditions for Contractor & Suppliers

1. The site must be telephoned before arrival of contractor. (Please note that a mutually agreed appointment must be made with site in advance, allowing an appropriate amount of time between the initial telephone call and the actual visit, as ringing to book the appointment for outside the site on the hope of entry is not acceptable).
2. Identification must be shown upon arrival.
3. Contractors must only work in the specified area and not visit any areas without knowledge or permission of the Office Manager or in their absence, Site Representative.
4. Appropriate language and behaviour must be used at all times.
5. Contractors must respect the privacy of staff at all times.
6. The Office Manager has the right to refuse entry to any person not adhering to the above.
7. Contractors must complete a works completion note before leaving the site. A copy to be retained by the contractor and a copy left on site.
8. Where Providence Services Ltd. encounter any aborted visits due to non compliance of any of the above then Providence Services Ltd. cannot and will not be held liable for payment.
9. Failure to conform to any of the above terms and conditions will result in non payment of the invoice.
10. Whilst some may feel that the above is extreme, we cannot over emphasise the importance of adhering to the points listed.

I confirm that I have read and understood the above Terms and Conditions.
